

$50 Salvage Inspection Fee Waiver

New Information

Effective immediately, when a nonresident or original (unavailable records) vehicle registration application contains an out-of-state or California Certificate of Title with a brand, indicating the vehicle was previously junked or salvaged and has been revived, the $50 salvage inspection fee is not due.

Procedures

When processing a nonresident or unavailable records vehicle registration application containing an out-of-state or California title with a brand which indicates the vehicle is a revived junk or revived salvage:

- Follow procedures in Vehicle Industry Registration Procedures Manual §12.025 for basic nonresident registration or §7.025 for unavailable records, as appropriate.
- Do not collect or submit a $50 salvage inspection fee.

Background

Vehicles that were junked or salvaged in another state and revived in that state are not subject to the provisions of California Vehicle Code (CVC) §5505. Therefore, the salvage inspection fee is not due.
